Mr. LBURY, Oct. 27, 1873 En Jounnan: -I have been requested by several readers of your valuable paper, to give an account of the birth and progress of our village, and as there has never been any kind of history given or recorded of Millbury, I will'asdeavor to do so. I will give a few incidents in connection if, Mr. editor, you would like to give Lumber of all Descriptions. me space in your paper. I don't expect to be strictly systematical, or grammatical, but will try to write so that it can be read and understend. FROM GRAND RAPIDS. Ms. Entron: - This place of saw mills and stone quarries, has been written up se often that there seemed nothing to write until after election. That has afforded some material. This Township was divided recently, so as to give to the se ple, for greater convenience, two voting presidets. This night to have brought out er ary youer, but instead they thought it too far to walk and not quite far enough to ride, so they staid at home, Some of the faithful, however, were there-those who always want to help elect the one in power, in soticipation of the future. Two of the aforesaid erased a name from their ticket, and in place inserted . The Decil " and for him cast their vote, Won't his m cjestr give them a mann cozy corner in consideration of their loyalty ? There is great rejuiceing over the Rapubli can defeat, and none are lauter in their joy than the ke per of the shop on front street, where drunkards are made, and souls damned; where | ica. women and children are robbed of fond and friends. The election of a new Prosecuting Attorney is considered an omen of good-a prom ise of future immunity from fines and imprisonment, for violation of the liquor law, and the 1 00 Class XXVI-Domestic Manuface establishment just mentional, is througed and men who had promised better things, now sit by the open deor, from which comes an odor that made me think of the dutchman's command to his son as they approached the sulphur springs: "Whip up the Horses Fritz for Aell can't be far from this place."

In order that every teacher may avail himself or herself of the benefits to be denied by attending teachers' institutes, the legislating has very wisely consisted that,

MARRIED.

At the residence of the bride's parents, October 13, 1873, by the Rev. T. N. Rarkdull, Mr. Ottovan N. Gazoo and Miss Many Cuminos, all of Toptogany.

1 wandered off 'mong the fields to-day
And the trees so golden brown,
To watch the fluttering, flying leaves
And the walnots tumbling down.

1 wanted to dream awhile, sweet friend,
And the ware a garland bright,
From the fancy flowers that fill my heart,
To place on your brow to-night. For twenty summers have quickly flown,

In peace o'er your happy head;
No longer a carpless, merry girl.
But a woman, "Sweet May," instead.
Of it seems an strenge that as children now Together we now shall roam;
That conther hath called my annny friend
Away from her childhood's home.

O! it seems so strange that the happy past Has vanished for e'er and ave; That my little mate has in truth become A woman in one short day!

Ther will miss you so in the household now,
At the sunny hour of noon;

There'll be something beautiful gone from

Like the roses out of June. And at morn and even with saddened hearts They'll offer an earnest prayer.
But one bright link in the chain of love
Will never again be there.
As I look at the years which our careless

Together have roamed away.
When we lovingly bent o'er the self-same Or bounded away in play. can scarce believe that these golden leaves

And the beautiful woods so bright.

Are hersbling in your twentieth year.

And, dear friend, your welding night! In blessing above room head;
Ther come so near to this earth of ours.
That we shows their tread. And ever white toiling up lifa's steep hill, Through its sunshine or its rain, May the heart you have chosen be firm an Ta bear all its grief and pain! And in beloing each other go on dear friends. To the river so still and dread, Unheading the sneers of a pityless world, He ever by charity led!

And while you are bearing each burden and Ot keen your heart pure and as sweet With the dust on our tired feet And slaking down 'mong the golden leaves To rest from our busy play. We watched the silent snadows come,

While the sonshine died away. O ! keep the heart of a trusting shild, And bucher go, hand in hand!
Remember that half the clouds we meet
We backen from shadow land.
And Heaven's blessing go with von both
To the class of this earthly life!
May its richest blessing grown the hour
That made you "man and wife!"

And tell ms, how could I help but dream
From the fancies that seem ac bright.
And weare a garland of flowers to place
On the brow of my friend to nigh?
So I wandered off many the fields to day,
And the woods as golden brown;
To watch the fluttering, flying leaves,
And the walnuts tumbling down.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

mankind than this ef-fectual remedy for all diseases of the Thross and Lungs. A vast trial of its virtues, throughout this and other countries, has shown that it does other countries, has shown that it does surely and effectually control them. The testimony of our best citizens, of all classes, establishes the fact, thus Cherny Pecronal will and does relieve and cure the afflicting disorders of the Throat and clangs beyond any other medicine. The most dangerous affections of the Pulmonary Organs yield to its power; and cases of Consumption, cured by this preparation, are publicly known, so remarkable as hardly to be believed, were they not proven beyond dispute. As a remedy it is adequate, on which the public may rely for full protection. By curing Coughs, the forerunners of more serious disease, it saves unnumbered lives, and an amount of suffering not to be computed. It challenges trial, and convinces the most sceptical. Every family should keep it on hand as a protection against the early and unperceived attack of Pulmonary Affections, which are easily met at first, but which become incurable, and too often fatal, if neglected. Tender lungs need this defence; and it is unwise to be without it. As a safeguard to children, amid the distressing diseases which beset the Throat and Chest of Childhood, Cranary Protonalis Invaluable; for, by its timely use, multitudes are rescued from premature graves, and saved to the love and affection centred on them. It acts speedily and surely against ordinary colds, securing sound and health-restoring sleep. No one will suffer troublesome Influenza and painful Bronchitis, when they know how easily they can be cured.

Originally the product of long, laborious, and successful chemical investigation, no cost or tog is spared in making every bottle in the numost possible perfection. It may be confidently relied upon as possessing all the virtues it has ever exhibited, and capable of producing cures as memorable as the greatest it has ever effected.

Hair Vigor,

gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, fallen hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, oured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follisles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed; but such as remain can be saved by this application, and stimulated into activity, so that a new growth of hair is produced. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sedia ment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning grey or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. The restoration of vitality it gives to the scalp arrests and prevents the forma-tion of dandruff, which is often so uncleanly and offensive. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable, Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich, glossy lustre, and a grateful perfume. Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., LOWELL, MASS.
